INTEROFFICE MEMORANDUM

TO: GOVERNOR
FROM: RILEY
SUBJECT: JOURNAL ENTRY FOR STUDENT'S TRAVELING PROJECT
DATE 10/23/00
CC: FILE

Governor Patton forwarded you a "traveling project" from Jessica in Mrs. Bond's class at Mapleton Elementary School in Mt. Sterling, Kentucky. The project consists of a stuffed owl named Barney. Jessica's class is tracking Barney's travel during the school year.

The project directions ask you to make an entry into the attached journal as to what Barney did with you while he was in Mississippi. I have also prepared the attached letter to Jessica for your signature. I am providing her with an autographed picture, our educational booklet and a highway map.

Unless otherwise directed by you, I am going to forward the project on to Governor Siegelman for his participation.

Dear Jessica:

I enjoyed having Barney visit my office and Mississippi. I am glad that your class is exploring the world. I always enjoy hearing from students about the different projects that they are working on.

Barney has had an exciting time during his stay in the Great State of Mississippi. Barney met His Excellency, The Duke of San Carlos, who was visiting Mississippi in preparation for "The Majesty of Spain" exhibition, which Mississippi will host March 1 through September 3, 2001.

I am enclosing several copies of my office's educational booklet for students for you to share with your class. Barney is now on his way to visit Governor Don Siegelman in Alabama.

Good luck in your studies and your endeavors!

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE
